

Effective immediately, the Easton Public Library will no longer offer proctoring services for individuals who need a proctor to oversee an exam. The Library does not have adequate staff resources to offer this service. Furthermore, the Library does not wish to take responsibility for any issues that may arise from this arrangement.