

EASTON PUBLIC LIBRARY STUDY POD POLICY

The Library Study Pod is available to any patron who needs a private space to study, work, conduct a meeting or phone conversation, or participate in teleconferencing activities.

The Pod may be reserved for a maximum of two hours. However, if a patron needs it for an extended time, they may continue to use it as long as there are no new requests for usage.

No food or drink (except water) is allowed in the Pod.

The Pod is available for use during regular Library hours. There is no usage fee.
